EQUITY ONLY

INVESTMENT THESIS

We seek to identify equity securities of high-quality franchises with strong balance sheets and free cash flow generation led by management teams with a history of value-creation, targeting those equities that are trading at attractive prices relative to our estimate of the underlying long-term value of the business. We also search for inefficiently-followed securities that we believe are undervalued and stand to benefit from secular tailwinds and/or company-specific catalysts.

We may invest a portion of the portfolio in exchange-traded funds to increase diversification and/or gain exposure to secular trends while reducing company-specific risk.

Through our focus on solid underlying business fundamentals, strong management teams, and the identification of secular and/or company-specific catalysts, we seek to experience lower volatility than the overall market during times of market turmoil. We believe that this strategy has proven effective over time and helps us attain our goal of long-term, consistent performance.
